5266	07-02-2013	MINUTE ENTRY SUMMARY: The parties have indicated that they want more of the Court's time. They will get it. A number of the parties have also indicated they wish to avoid the current "two-step" process, through which they incur significant fees (and the attendant delays) by litigating issues before the Special Master and then the Court. The Court is sympathetic to this concern, and believes that it would be proper for the Court to take the lead on various issues. In particular, it appears appropriate to transfer the Fort Huachuca, SPRNCA and Aravaipa Canyon cases to the Court in the near future. The parties are encouraged to submit a specific proposal for transferring Fort Huachuca to the Court, so that the Court can set aside time to hold hearing in that matter, including an evidentiary hearing. The Court requests a proposal by August 15, 2013. CLAIMANT NO: None given. PAGES: 2
